

Marianne Fons' "Why We Quilt" Lecture

Co-Sponsored by
Fons & Porter's Love of Quilting

Saturday, June 26, 2010

5:00 p.m. Lecture

Boise Center on the Grove

2 - 4:00 p.m. "Meet & Greet Marianne"

Marianne Fons is co-editor-in-chief of Fons & Porter's Love of Quilting magazine. With Liz Porter, she hosts the popular public television series of the same name. Fons and Porter are authors of many best-selling quilting books. Marianne was Iowa winner of the 1986 Great American Quilt Contest with her Lady Liberty Medallion quilt. Her World Peace quilt won Best Overall Workmanship at the first Quilt Expo Europa contest in Salzburg, Austria, in 1988. Marianne is a life member of the Iowa Quilters Guild and was on the steering committee of her state's Iowa Quilts Research Project. She serves on the board of the International Quilt Study Center located in Lincoln, Nebraska. Additional information about Marianne Fons can be found at www.fonsandporter.com.

Marianne will do a "meet and greet" from 2 to 4:00 p.m. -- participants will be able to:

- Meet Marianne
- Have their picture taken with Marianne
- Have Marianne autograph books, magazines, etc.

Marianne will give her lecture, "Why We Quilt" at 5:00 p.m.

- After the lecture, she will do a question and answer session
