A Word from Your President

Fellow Quilters,

We all just witnessed an amazing community of volunteers come together to put on a Quilt Show that can only be described as SPECTACULAR! Congratulations to Chair Lisa Malaniak, the committee chairs, all the volunteers, the vendors, exhibitors, and especially to the amazing quilters who displayed their fabulous works of art. I'm proud of the show we were able to offer to our community, and I hope you are as well.

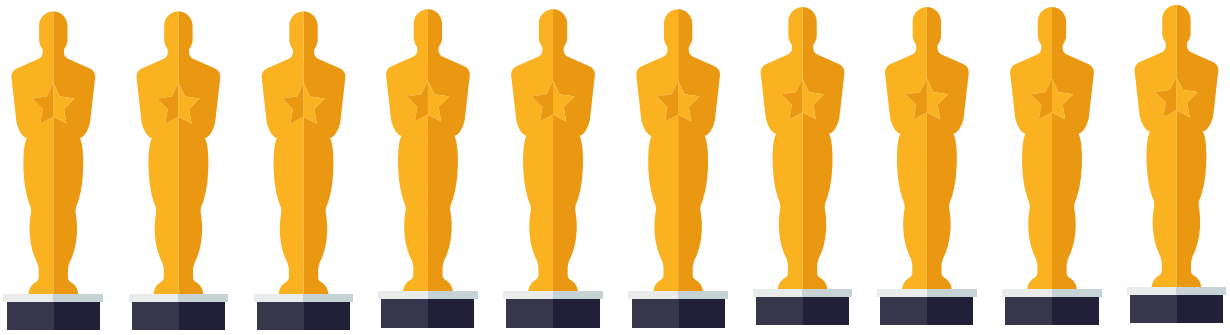

A couple of my favorite quilts are shown below. I loved this bright, colorful quilt by Matt Cox. I saw it being moved in the judging room, while it was being hung, and then again when I wandered through the show. Each time, something different caught my eye. Another favorite was in the Hoffman Challenge, and quilt by Orit Modiano from Israel, titled "Seeking Color Even Through Darkness". It really made me wonder just what darkness the maker might be living through. From light to dark,happy to sad, bold to subtle, a quilt can capture so many emotions. I hope you found quilts that spoke to you and enjoyed them all as much as I did.

And now for the business of the guild. It's that time of year to step up and fill the executive board positions. All offices are open for nominations: President, Vice President, Secretary, Treasurer and Quilt Show Chair. This is your opportunity to shape the direction of the guild. Remember, filling these positions is a requirement to keep our wonderful organization in compliance with state regulations. If you know someone that would be a great fit for an office, please contact Amanda Bruesch, committee chair, at treasurer@boisebasinquilters.org. Send the name of your nominee along with a brief statement of why you think they'd be a good fit for an office, and the committee will take it from there. While our bylaws state that candidates cannot self-nominate, if you are interested, please let the committee know and they will help facilitate your nomination. You might even consider serving with another member as co-officers, two can share the load.

As evidenced by the success of the Quilt Show, there is a village of volunteers among us. Don't be afraid to step into a leadership role, that village will be there to support you.
Happy Stitching,

Janice Atkins-Neva
GUILD PRESIDENT

Featured Program Speaker

JOE CUNNINGHAM

Post Modern Quilting

Joe Cunningham has been a professional quilt artist since 1979. He began making quilts in his hometown of Flint, Michigan; eventually moving to San Francisco where he lives with his wife, Carol LeMaitre, above her Pilates studio, and maintains a gallery/ studio to make and show his quilts. Joe travels the world to show quilts and teach, as well as teaching his popular online classes from his studio. He has written ten quilt- making books, and his quilts are in the permanent collections of several museums.

Here is how Joe describes "Post Modern Quiltmaking," the lecture he'll be giving at BBQ:

We all know what "Modern" quilt making is. Sort of. Now that Modern Quilts have been around for a while the world is starting to move on, or maybe it's just me. In this lecture I'll talk about Modern Quilts and how they have influenced the wider quilt world, and explain how I have come to find my own style of "Post" Modern quiltmaking. With lots of examples and time for questions, this is a crowd favorite.

Visit Joe's Website

Need to Get Your Edge Back?

Stuart of The Cutting Edge will be at our October 15 meeting to sharpen your scissors including pinking shears. You may also bring kitchen knives.

How it works:
Show up as early as 6:00 PM to drop off your scissors and/or knives to Stuart. He will sharpen them during the meeting. Pick up and pay during the meeting break or at the close of the meeting. Prices for scissors at around $7 a pair and $8 for pinking shears. Knives at $1 per inch of blade length, $5 minimum.

If you have any questions, you can reach Stuart at (541) 285.2820.

Creative Design Workshop with Joe Cunningham

OCTOBER 16 (FRI) AND
OCTOBER 17 (SAT)

Register Today

Time to Register for the Joe Cunningham Workshop to be held in October.

In Joe's 2-day workshop, he will demonstrate and teach how to develop a small idea into an abstract quilt. He teaches techniques for freehand piecing, working with bias tape, and creating memorable compositions. With his assistance, you will develop your own designs and get them to a point where they can be completed.

This is primarily a sewing machine class but some hand sewing may be required. Registration opens to non-BBQ members on August 20th. That is also the final day for quilters to cancel and receive a refund.

$145 for the 2-day class on Friday 10/16 and Saturday 10/17/26 and includes lunch on Saturday.

Foundation Paper Piecing for Everybody

FEBRUARY 13, 2027 (SAT)

Hosted @ JK Quilts in Meridian
Taught by Kay Berquist
10:00am-5:00pm
Cost is $45

Register Today

Paper piecing is not "fast" sewing. It takes time, but the result is well worth it! Precise points and unusual angles make the blocks very distinctive.

Kay Berquist's class "Foundation Paper Piecing for Everyone" teaches the Carol Doak method for paper piecing. Designer Carol Doak has been an innovator in paper piecing for years, and is most well-known for her intricate star patterns.

Most quilters will complete one block in class. You will learn the method to complete the other two at home. Papers for the three stars will be provided. The 12" star blocks can be used individually or combined as a larger project.

More about Kay: Quilting has been a part of my life most of my adult life. I am new to Boise, having moved here about a year ago from Vermont, where I was born and raised. In Vermont, I was an active quilter, teacher and had a longarm quilting business. When my husband and I moved here, I knew I wanted to be a part of the quilting community here, so have been looking for ways to meet other quilters and become involved. It is amazing that there are several wonderful shops here, and a large active guild. I look forward to being part of the local quilting community.

FEARLESS FOUNDATION PAPER PIECING: TIPS AND TECHNIQUES TO MAKE FPP EASIER AND MORE FUN

This class is for someone who has done some FPP, especially if some part of the process is frustrating to you. I really want to invite anyone that has tried FPP and given up on it. You are missing so much!

We will discuss everything from what constitutes a quality pattern to why the size of the pieces is not what defines the difficulty (and what does). I will give you ideas on how to organize your fabrics and how best to cut pieces to minimize frustration from too small pieces. We will also look at what "paper" is best to sew on and you will get to try 3 different kinds.

You will be making at least 3 blocks designed especially to demonstrate and practice the ideas discussed.

The class costs $15 and will be held at Boise Rigging Supply. To register, or for more information, please visit our website. October 19th is the deadline to register.

QUILTING ON YOUR DOMESTIC MACHINE WITH MADELINE TRAINOR

In this class, you'll set up your machine and then, working on a small previously prepared quilt sandwich, learn and practice basic shapes for free-motion quilting confidence.

This class is capped at twelve participants, so please register early to avoid disappointment!

Please note that if you would like to take Judith Phelps' Thread Painting workshop next fall, you must already have had some experience with free-motion quilting. Taking Madeleine's class will help you meet that requirement!

The class costs $15 and will be held at Boise Rigging Supply.

2026 QUILT SHOW

MANY HANDS MADE LIGHT WORK FOR A SUCCESSFUL SHOW

Hundreds of volunteer hours, many happy visitors, and gorgeous quilts around every corner – by all accounts our 2026 Quilt Show was a fantastic event!

- 1,500+ attendees
- 1,100+ raffle tickets sold
- $4,925 in prize money awarded
- 35 new and renewing members
- Silent Auction raised nearly $9,500, setting a new record!

Photos courtesy of Becky Kinzer

With more than 200 quilt entries, and TWO trunks of fantastic items from the Hoffman Challenge, there was something for everyone! Our small groups dominated the entire north end of the Expo with their amazing small creations.

On the south end of the Expo, Canyon County Quilts of Valor had a moving ceremony to gift 6 local veterans with quilts.

QUILT SHOW WAS NEARLY 'GONE WITH THE WIND'

Every event has its moment – and this year's 'moment' came blustering in Friday afternoon, as wind gusts ripped through the Treasure Valley topping 50 miles per hour! As attendees entered and exited the show, the wind unexpectedly funneled into the Expo. The first row of quilts, being top heavy, caught the wind and the pipe scaffolding simply could not hold. Like a slow-motion movie moment, many of us watched in disbelief as the collapsing center poles brought down the entire first row.

That could have been the end of the story.

But it wasn't.

The moment the last quilt fluttered to the floor is when the magic started.

First order of business: ensure no one was harmed. Everyone was safe.

Then came the helpers. Guild members, family, friends, visitors – dozens of people jumped in immediately to help. Someone said, "Hey, we're quilters, we can figure this out!" and teams started to reconnect the scaffolding. Quilts were rehung. Weights were added to help anchor the bases. Doors were blocked off, to minimize the wind. Everyone worked together – holding, lifting, balancing, adjusting, encouraging.

Around every corner was our community, doing what they do best – supporting one another and making the best of the situation. That's the real story; our quilt show continued because of you, in spite of the wind! Well done!

WINNER, WINNER! WINNING A QUILT IS BETTER THAN A CHICKEN DINNER... .

From door prizes and generous vendor quick gifts to our big passport baskets, we had winners galore! And our biggest winner was Boise resident Chuck Christiansen, when past president Kathy Quinn pulled his name from the big barrel of more than 1,100 names.

Chuck was so pleased to win our raffle quilt – he said he often enters local raffles because he likes supporting great organizations like BBQ. He assured us that the dog "would not be allowed on the quilt" but we gave him a quick care lesson just in case. Congratulations to Chuck, and to all of our winners!

CURIOUS ABOUT THE JUDGING PROCESS?

Although practically every moment of the 2026 quilt show process was a new experience for our first-year Quilt Show Chair Lisa Malaniak, she discovered that one of the most fascinating processes happened as she observed the quilt show judges at work. This year we were pleased to invite Dawn Davis back for a second year. She was joined by Nancy Fuka, and although the two judges had never worked together before they found their groove quickly!

Gloved wranglers first lift the quilt, and the judges step back to view it from a distance.

Then the judges get up close and personal, looking at even the smallest details of the quilt, front and back.

BBQ scribes work in pairs so no comment is missed. Every judged entry is given equal time and attention, and every entry receives 3 to 5 written comments.

Thank you to our judging team for a great year!

New Member Coffee

10:00AM @ ALCHEMIST COFFEE
10650 W OVERLAND ROAD

We are so pleased you have joined BBQ and hope you will come and meet other new members and some long time members.

We want to learn what kind of quilting you enjoy and answer your questions about activities and opportunities at BBQ. Feel free to bring hand work if you wish.
(psssst – any member is welcome regardless of how long you have been part of BBQ)

Enjoy a chance for door prizes in addition to your coffee/tea and meeting other quilters.

Special Projects

I was overwhelmed by all of the Special Projects turned in at the September meeting. You all are Rock Stars! We delivered an abundance of finished items to the St Luke's Foundation.

65 Pillowcases
20 Chemo Caps
44 Port-a-Cath Pillows

The Foundation is so grateful to everyone that puts together these gifts that help those in the care of the hospital system. A child's hospital stay is brighter, a bald head is covered, and seat belts don't bind because of your generosity.

You also donated 31 Christmas stockings at the September meeting. We need to have stockings turned in by the October meeting so the Blue Star Mothers can stuff the stockings and send them overseas.

Please stop by the Special Projects table to pick up kits for all the Special Projects. You can also raid your stash. The instructions for all of these are on the BBQ website under:

Thanks again for all your generosity,

Show + Tell

October Show + Tell | Jelly Roll Quilts

Show & Tell is one of the highlights of each guild meeting, and we'd love to see what you've been working on! The themes are simply for inspiration, so bring along your quilts whether they fit the theme or not! We enjoy seeing brand-new finishes, works in progress, and even treasured quilts you made years ago. Every quilt has a story, and sharing them sparks ideas, encouragement, and creativity for everyone in the room. So please don't be shy—bring a quilt (or two!) and share your creativity with the guild!

Don't forget to print & complete your Show & Tell registration prior to the meeting.

November - Paper Pieced
December - No Meeting

Fat Quarter Exchange

October Exchange | Halloween Fabrics

The Fat Quarter Exchange is a fun part of our monthly quilt guild meeting! It's a simple yet delightful way to share fabrics and spark creativity. Each month, members bring in a fabric fat quarter (a 18" x 22" piece of fabric), and in return, they get to put their name into the raffle. When the drawing takes place, the lucky winner or winners receive a whole stack of fat quarters that match the theme of the month. Whether it's bright florals, cozy plaids, or bold solids, it's always a surprise and a great way to build up a fabric stash with new and inspiring materials.

This exchange is meant to encourage everyone to participate, regardless of skill level, and to have fun with the process. Who doesn't love the thrill of winning a beautiful collection of fabrics that might just spark a new creative venture? So, bring your fat quarter, take a chance, and join the fun!

Upcoming exchanges are below

Meeting Activities

"Project on a Page" is continuing with ORNAMENTS. Each meeting, a small project will be displayed, something you can put together with leftover fabrics in a short amount of time. A sample will be on display along with a (hopefully) one page instruction sheet. Take the sheet home, bring your project back the following month for a group photo and a chance to win a small prize.

Bring completed ornaments to the November meeting for an exchange!!

HELP DESK

Do you have a project sitting around that you just don't know what to do with? Maybe you're stuck trying to decipher a pattern. Or you're just not sure what fabrics to use for a border. You've finished a top but can't decide how to quilt it. Bring your project to the Help Desk and let your fellow guild members help you get back on track. Improved process – add your name and what you want help with to the box. They will be read at the beginning of the meeting, then be sure to hang out at the Help Desk during the break so those with ideas for you can find you. We are a great community with lots of expertise, lets share it with each other.

Help Solve a Quilt Mystery!

FROM THE DESK OF CHERYL LITTLE

I have been trying to find out who did the Longarm quilting on the BBQ Raffle Quilt in 2011 "Famous Quilters Signature Quilt". It was won by Kathy Quinn a Past BBQ President and is still in her possession. It never had a proper label and we would like to have the quilter's name to add to the label.

It has an interesting history and contains the signatures of 102 quilters who were well known in the world of quilting, as they traveled the world teaching, publishing books, patterns and even quilts.

As my resources are dwindling, I wondered if we asked in the newsletter and on the public Facebook page if something might pop up!

Can you help solve the mystery? Reach out to Cheryl Little if you have information about the mystery quilter.

Here is the quilt:

MYSTERY QUILT PART 2

And here is the POTENTIAL label and back story, just missing the QUILTER'S NAME

Famous Quilters' Signature Quilt 1995-2010 - 102 Signatures
Boise Basin Quilters' Raffle Quilt - 2011

Pieced by Patty Hinkel, Boise, ID
Applique border by Vintage Quilters, mostly Kate White, Boise, ID
Quilted by

The center of the quilt was made by Patty Hinkel, owner of The Quilt Crossing in Boise, Idaho. She and Cheryl Little, owner of The Cotton Club, Boise, Idaho, and others, took it to the Houston Quilt Market in 1995 and to Empty Spools Seminars to obtain signatures of "Famous Quilters", thus the name "Famous Quilters' Signature Quilt". Patty then donated the top to Boise Basin Quilters to use as a raffle quilt. Since most the tickets on raffle quilts in those days were sold in and around Boise, it was hard to imagine that a quilt of this type would appeal to non-quilters.

Then, in 2010, Boise Basin Quilters, was asked to be the featured guild at the annual Portland Quilt Show in 2011. Since we could sell raffle tickets at that show, it seemed the perfect opportunity to showcase the quilt to a wider audience. Also, by then the Internet was maturing and social media was developing, so, again, an opportunity to reach a wider audience. Cheryl had the top. She dug it out and with the help of a small quilt group in her area, Vintage Quilters, an appliqué border was added. By then there were lots of new "Famous Quilters", so off again it went to Houston Quilt Market and Empty Spools for signatures. This time we took photos of some of the signers actually signing the quilt. That is, also, when Ruth B McDowell signed it for a second time. When the bottom border still needed signatures, we asked all of the nationally known quilters from Boise to sign, which included Jacque Riddlemoser (Glendora's Girl patterns), DuAnn Corn Wright (DuAnn's Designs patterns), Cheryl Gunn (Waltzing with Bears patterns) and Joyce Lawrence Cambron (Seams Like Fun patterns and author of A New Spin on Curved Piecing).

Kathy Quinn, a past Chairman of Boise Basin Quilters won the quilt In September of 2011 at the conclusion of the Boise Basin Quilters annual quilt show.
